中文公函的文体

不同职系的人员因职务上的需要，有时候要代表总督、各科司级首长、各部门首长或其他高级人员，或亲自以公职人员的身分，用中文回答市民的来信或请愿书。本通函的目的，在提醒负责人员致函市民时所应采用的文体。

2.　撰写公函的一般原则，是力求精简明确，措辞得体，文字浅白，让收信人容易了解信件内容。因此，政府人员致函市民时，理宜用白话文，而不用文言文。

3.　所有给市民的回信，都要客气得体，不可使用带有官僚色彩的词句，如“督宪”、“司宪”、“长官”、“大人”、“奉督宪谕”、“奉司宪谕”等。其他如“诸维朗照”或“爰承宪谕，先行布覆”一类套语已不合时宜，也不应使用。

4.　各部门即使仍有文言文公函印妥备用，亦应改用白话文公函。如对本通函有疑问，请与总中文主任李陈亮冰女士(电话：867 2981)或总中文主任李琰红小姐(电话：867 2988)联络。

5.　各部门务请确保所有用中文与市民通信的人员都知悉本通函的内容；并定期将本通函传阅，提醒负责人员注意有关事项。

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM

From: Commissioner for Chinese Language

To: Branch Secretaries, G. S. Heads of Departments

Ref: (26) in CLA 1/08/12

Tel: 8672931

Date: 12 January 1994

Style of Language Used in Official Chinese Correspondence with the Public

Officers of different grades are someimes required to reply to letters or petitions in the Chinese language in their respective official capacities, or on behalf of the Governor, Branch Secretaries, Department Heads or other high-ranking officials. This circular memorandum reminds action officers of the preferred style of language to be used in correspondence with the public.

2. The general principle is that all communications with members of the public should be polite, clear and precise, and the style of language used should render the reply easily comprehensible to the recipients. For this reason, the vernacular style(白话文), rather than the literary style(文言文), is preferred.

3. While replies should at all times be courteous, certain terms or phrases such as "督宪","司宪","长官","大人","奉督宪谕"and"奉司宪谕", which sound like imperial edicts, must not be used in any communications with members of the public. Other phrases, such as "诸维朗照"or"爰承宪谕, 先行布覆", are archaic and should be avoided.

4. Printed standard letters written in the literary style, if currently in use, should be replaced by new ones written in the vernacular style. Officers who wish to make inquiries about this circular memorandum may contact Mrs Carol LEE or Miss Miranda LEE, Chief Chinese Language Officers, at 867 2981 and 867 2988 respectively.

5. Please bring this circular memorandum to the attention of all your staff who are responsible for written communications with the public in Chinese, and re-circulate it regularly to serve as a reminder.
